LOCAL NEWS.

THE WAWASET DISASTER.—The only case in which suit has been brought for injuries caused by the terrible catastrophe of the burning of the steamer Wawaset, in August last year, came to a conclusion in the Circuit Court of Washington yesterday. Andrew Melville, who was upon the Wawaset at the time of the disaster, leaped overboard, but passed under the wheel and was struck by the paddle, so that he claims he was unable to work and required medical attendance. He brought suit on the 26th of September last before Justice M. Altoun on the following bill: "To eighteen days' loss, at $4 per day, $72; to doctor's bill, $21; to cost for chest, $25; to bandage, 60 cents; to treatment, $3; to plaster, 50 cents; to laundry, 40 cents; total, $100; and the just and equitable judgment of the jury for the whole amount. An appeal was taken, and on the case coming up yesterday, it was dismissed at the defendant's cost.

HELP THE POOR.—Unpalatable as may be the announcement to some, and surprising as it certainly will be to others, it is a fact of which too many sufferers are painfully aware, that there are now people in this city, and these, too, who a few years ago were in comparatively comfortable circumstances, who, being too proud to beg, are suffering the pangs of cold and hunger. Those having anything to give away can find worthy objects on which to bestow their charity by calling upon any of the members of the L. D. Union Relief Society, who will, if required, carry them to the abodes of such afflicted poverty as has been alluded to above, so that, with their own eyes, they can see that their alms are given to those who merit them and who receive them only to keep soul and body together.

CORPORATION COURT.—Judge E. M. Lane presiding.—The will of the late Robert H. Miller was admitted to probate, and Elisha J. Miller and Francis Miller qualified as executors of the same.

The estate of Stephen Shinn, deceased, was, on motion of George R. Shinn, committed to the care of James M. Stewart, for administration.
 Griggs vs. Atkinson; chancery; decree for sale of dwelling corner of Prince and Payne streets.
 Miller vs. O. A. & M. R. R. Co.; chancery; decree against defendant.
 Whitson vs. Gray et al.; chancery; argument concluded and decision reserved.
 Court adjourned till court in course.

JEWISH FESTIVAL.—In the synagogue this morning prayers were offered for the first month of the Hebrew calendar, which begins next Thursday. It is the Hebrew month Nisan, being the month upon which the Hebrews, after a bondage of centuries, recovered their liberty from the Pharaohs in Egypt and began their wanderings to the promised land. On the fourteenth day of this month occurs the Feast of the Passover. Thursday next will make the beginning of the civil year of the Jews, and in the synagogue to day reference was made to the fact of the beginning of the first month of the civil year and an allusion was also made to the approaching festival.

LOW TIDE.—The northwest wind which has been blowing now for a week past, has made the water in the Potomac as low as it is ever remembered to have been. The tides on both sides of the river are nearly bare, the water being confined almost entirely within the narrow limits of the channel. The heads of all the docks are dry, and the depth of water at the end of the wharves is considerably reduced. The market people residing in Maryland were unable to reach here this morning in consequence of the grounding of the ferry boat near her slip on the other side of the river.

OYSTERS.—The supply of oysters at flat at the dock, as stated yesterday, is entirely exhausted, and the dealers are now troubled about procuring enough of what has become one of the staple articles of food, to fill the orders they daily receive. A tug boat, having in tow a vessel containing a cargo of oysters arrived this morning, but went on to Washington, where the scarcity is as great as it is here, and where a crowd of buyers was anxiously awaiting its arrival.

PROPERTY SALES.—Green & Wise sold, today, by public auction, for H. O. Claughton and others, commissioners, the lot of ground on the southeast corner of Prince and Alfred streets, to Richard A. Ruid, for $900. Also a tract of ground of $10 per annum on a lot of ground on the west side of Lee and south side of Franklin street to the same for $25.

FRANKLIN.—The California Legislature passed a law yesterday making it a misdemeanor to invite any person to drink, or to accept an invitation to drink, at any public bar. The law beats and spouters coast guard similar action on the part of the Virginia Legislature with fear and trembling.

NEW STEAMER.—The hull of the new steamer now being built for the Upper Potomac Steamboat Company, at Acquia, is nearly completed, and next week will be towed to this city, where the joiners' work will be done, and where, as heretofore stated, her engines and boilers are being manufactured.

THE CHAIN GANG.—The chain gang composed now of stout, able bodied men, were at work for a short time on the streets this morning, but as the temperature was cool on the side of the streets, they were, after about an hour's labor, taken back to the comfortable fires in the jail.

MID LENT SUNDAY.—The season of Lent is rapidly passing. To-morrow will be what is known as mid Lent Sunday, indicating that more than half of the great fast has been passed, and that only three weeks remain to reach the Easter festival.

ROBBERY.—The store of Mr. John Catts, at West End, was broken open on the night of Wednesday last, and robbed of about forty dollars worth of bacon and ten dollars worth of tobacco.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

(SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE GAZETTE.)

Re-arrest of a Desperado.

RICHMOND, March 14.—Andrew Gillan, an escaped convict from the penitentiary and a noted desperado was captured yesterday near Pamplin station on the Southside railroad, but not until after a desperate fight with the eight men who surrounded him. He was heavily armed, and discharged every load at his captors, and did not quit until he had been shot twice, once in the face and once in the breast.

Mr. Sumner's Remains.

NEW YORK, March 14.—The remains of Senator Sumner were taken from the Fifth Avenue Hotel this morning to the Grand Central depot at 42nd street en route to St. Louis. Their removal caused as little stir as the departure of the Washington colored police who were in charge of the body during the night brought the box containing the casket from the parlour in the south east wing of the building down to the hall of the hotel, which was occupied by numerous guests stopping in the building, and who formed in line to the entrance door with uncovered heads. Outside the hotel were collected a few of the residents of the neighborhood, who had been apprised of the fact that the remains of the illustrious Senator had been deposited in the Fifth Avenue hotel last night. These were kept in order by a few policemen from the nearest precinct station house. Captain Leary's squad of police officers ranged themselves on the pavement in two rows, through which the remains were borne by colored men to the hearse which was in waiting. The different committees then entered the carriages and the solemn procession took its way to the depot, in the following order: A squad of New York police, the hearse, containing the body, the Union League Club, the Washington police (colored), the carriages containing the committees and decorations. At the Grand Central depot there was a small crowd collected, the news of the coming of the body of the remains of the Senator being borne in the same manner to a train in waiting, which shortly after 10 o'clock steamed slowly out of the depot.

Tributes of Respect.

ST. LOUIS, March 14.—Both houses of the Legislature yesterday passed resolutions of respect to the memory of ex-President Fillmore and Senator Sumner, and similar resolutions with regard to ex-Senator Whittier, of Texas.

NEW YORK, March 14.—Yesterday Hon. Stephen Preston, Minister of Hayti to this country, received a cable dispatch from his government directing him to assist in the reception of the remains of Senator Sumner on their arrival in this city and accompany them to Boston and attend the funeral in an official capacity.

NEW YORK, March 14.—A meeting of colored citizens will be held to-morrow evening in Shiloh Pre-baptist Church to give expression to their sorrow on the death of Charles Sumner.

The colored citizens of Newark have adopted resolutions of regret at his death.

The Temperance Cause.

CLEVELAND, O., March 14.—The women's temperance movement in this city assumed a more practical phase yesterday morning. A large number of ladies assembled in the parlors of one of the principal churches, and after sometime spent in prayer and consultation, some fifty of them started out in pairs, and proceeding to different sections of the city canvassed for signatures to the general pledge, meeting with fair success. An attack upon the saloons will probably be made next week.

The crusade continues in most of the neighboring towns and there seems to be no abatement of zeal and determination on the part of the ladies in any quarter.

NEW YORK, March 14.—The German saloon keepers of the Tenth Ward are organizing a protection organization against the temperance crusade.

Fatal Railroad Accident.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 14.—A passenger train going west on the Central Pacific railroad between Toano and We was thrown from the track by a broken rail and went over an embankment, falling a distance of thirty feet. It is reported that the loss of life was very great. The particulars will be forwarded as soon as ascertained.

The Abolition Expedition.

LONDON, March 14.—A dispatch was received at the Admiralty office last evening from Cape Coast Castle dated February 22, saying all the troops, except the Highlanders, will embark for home, Sir Garnet Wolsey will embark on the 7th of March. Captain G-over, with 1,000 men, entered Coma-se two days after Sir Garnet Wolsey occupied the town.

Verdict in the Woodhull-Cliff Case.

NEW YORK, March 14.—The jury in the case of Woodhull & Cliff on trial for libelling Luther Chablis, have returned a verdict of not guilty. Judge Sutherland characterized the verdict as the most outrageous one he had ever heard of. The women left the Court room cheered by their friends.

MARYLAND HAMS, Sugar-cured Breakfast Pieces and Shoulders, for sale by J. C. MILBURN.

LOCAL REVIEWS.

A boy named Lee Moore, living opposite the jail, while ordering a load of wood at Mr. Rose's yard, this morning, had a hemorrhage from his lungs, which was so profuse and weakening that he had to be picked up and carried home by two policemen.

It was reported at police headquarters this morning that a colored boy, to whom a woman had given a ten dollar note to get changed, had invested the same in a watch which he was "sporting around," and that his victim was hunting for him.

The weather to-day, though clear and bright, has been windy, and so cold that overcoats were comfortable even in the sunshine. A considerable thickness formed last night on pools sheltered from the wind.

The McVeigh Underwood case will come up in the Supreme Court on Monday next. Should Mr. McVeigh recover possession of his house, as is most probable, it is possible he will return here to live.

The annual rental of the three new book shops in the east wing of the market building has been appraised as follows: For the one next to Fairfax street, $125; for that next to the square, $100, and for the middle one, $75.

Judge Cockrell, the efficient Delegate in the Legislature from Fairfax, was in the city to-day, looking, his numerous friends will be glad to learn, as well as ever.

Tuesday next will be St. Patrick's Day. The Knights of St. Patrick of this city have been invited to attend a celebration of the day by the members of their order in Washington.

The ordination of Mr. Meade, a grandson of Bishop Meade, will take place to-morrow at Grace Church, by Bishop Johns.

John Stanton, colored, of this city, one of the Capitol police force, was one of the members of the late Senator Sumner to Boston.

At a meeting of Potomac Lodge of Good Templars, held last night, two new members were initiated and five applications for membership were received.

The condition of Mr. Thomas Cross, who lost his left leg by an accident on Wednesday night last, was worse this evening than it has been.

A large party of mar-quees were out again last night. They paid a visit to the City Hotel, where they were hospitably treated.

Mr. Jas. Watkins is putting the road leading from Cameron run to the Little River turnpike in excellent condition.

We are indebted to the kindness of a friend for copies of the London Times of a late date.

POLICE HEADQUARTERS.—Affairs at police headquarters were exceedingly quiet this morning. The only cases reported there since yesterday have been John Laws and Zip Gray, colored, whose examination on the charge of disorderly proceedings, on Naylor's Hill, on the 23d ult., had been continued from day to day for several days past, and who were finally discharged upon the payment of the fines that were imposed upon them. Three lodgers applied for and were accommodated at the station house last night.

Buck Dogan, colored, for gambling, was fined and discharged.

Sam Day, colored, for permitting gambling on his premises, was fined and discharged.

Ben Hibbs, a colored boy, and a man named Joseph Burns, arrested for robbing Michael Norville of $100, were held for further examination.

THE FISHERY.—Fishing operations on the Potomac are seriously retarded by the prevailing high winds from the Northwest, and the consequent low water in the river. Many of the shores are supplied with their complement of hands, who are idling about, unable to haul the seines, though they have to be fed as regularly as if they were at work. The outfit of Mr. W. J. Cunningham, for the shore at Budd's Ferry, left here this morning.

Mr. A. Glaebert makes candy as delicious as any ever made by the old French candy-maker on 9th street, Washington. That which is hard, as clear as crystal and as brittle as glass; that which is soft, dissolves in the mouth like congealed cream. His variety, too, is extensive, and the price at which he sells it to his numerous customers at his stall in the market is remarkably moderate. The sample sent to this office to-day, judging from the avidity with which it was used to disappear, more than one "child again," if not for a night.

I. Schwartz & Co. have received at their Sarepta Hall store their advanced stock of spring clothing, comprising a variety of such extent, and offered at such low rates, that the most fastidious and economical purchasers need not go away from the city to supply their wants.

The reputation of the goods manufactured by Messrs. Geo. R. Hill & Co., of this city, seems to be travelling rapidly. In addition to orders from Philadelphia, New York, Charleston and other prominent points in this country, they have received an order from one of the largest mercantile houses in Rome, Italy.
